DEDICATION

Dedicated to the memory of long-time publisher of the Rutland Herald, Robert W. Mitchell (1910-1993), whose assistance in obtaining the early issues of the Herald was invaluable.

Introduction

The fourth five-year compilation of news items from the Rutland Herald spans 1821-1825. The most newsworthy event of that time was Lafayette making a return trip to the United States. There were numerous articles and anecdotes from people who knew him. We were unable to find many of the issues covering this time period.

The first issue of the Rutland Herald or Vermont Mercury was published at Rutland, Vermont on 8 December 1794. The four-page weekly newspaper was devoted mostly to international, national and state events, especially on the political scene. It also carried notices and advertisements for the county, some local news, death notices and marriages. Due to the lengthy reports of hostilities in the South during the Civil War, publication went daily in April 1861.

Because the project of copying details from these newspapers is so massive and time-consuming, it was decided to release this information in five year increments. Every effort has been made to locate the missing issues.

The reader should be informed that when reading the obituaries and marriages that "this town" is Rutland; inst. refers to the present month and ult. to the month prior. Consort is the spouse; relict is the widow. These notices not only included Rutland, but various other towns in Vermont and other states. Unfortunately the state is not always listed after each town where the event occurred. The original spelling has been kept throughout. It must be noted that these notices were handwritten and were deciphered by the newspaper staff. Thus misspellings do occur. It is often difficult to read the microfilm due to the age of the newspapers.

Our sincere gratitude is extended to the following:

Rutland Herald—Faye Wener, Archivist, and John Mitchell, Publisher
Readex Corporation—Stanley Shapiro
American Antiquarian Society—Russell L. Martin, III
